

I want the Indiana law to remain as it is. The Telephone Privacy Act has stopped many many of the irritating phone calls from person's doing telephone solicitation, etc. Now when I get ready to sit down to dinner with my family my phone doesn't ring off the hook and I'm very grateful for that.